

Trinity School for Ministry International Student Admission Basic Information

Trinity will consider an application for admission from any potential International Student who meets these first four criteria. If these criteria are met, the student is welcome to complete an application for admission which is available on our website.

1. The applicant should be theologically orthodox, willing to sign Trinity's Statement of Faith and Covenant.
2. The applicant must submit a letter of approval for study at Trinity from their Bishop in the Anglican Communion.
3. The applicant must have a bachelor's degree. Preferable this degree will have been completed with the English language as the primary language of instruction. If English was not the primary language, the student must take a TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) exam and submit the scores.
4. The applicant must be able to articulate clearly how a Trinity degree will better equip them for a particular ministry in their home country. Trinity is particularly desiring to award scholarships to people who plan to return to their home country to be theological teachers.

APPLICATION—If the student meets these four criteria, he or she should complete the International Student Application for admission and all the steps included in that process. This material is on our website www.tsm.edu; or contact us and we will mail the material.

ACCEPTANCE— All application materials must be submitted by January 1 of each year to be considered for the following fall semester. The International Student Admission Committee will meet during the spring to review all applications from International students. All students will be notified in the spring if they are accepted and received a scholarship.

ENROLLMENT—International applicants are admitted to the Master of Arts in Religion degree for a two year course of study. The applicant may choose the concentration within the MAR degree which they wish to pursue.
