

DAS – Diploma Worksheet

18 credits

The Diploma in Anglican Studies (DAS) is designed to provide the student with a rich understanding of worldwide Anglicanism and the Anglican tradition for those who have already studied the basic theological disciplines. The diploma is an ideal program of study for those transitioning into the Anglican Communion after theological formation and ministry in another Christian denomination.

The DAS program is 18 credits in the following disciplines*:

Church History (6 credits):

- CH635 Medieval and Reformation Church History
- CH645 Anglican/Episcopal History

Mission (3 credits):

- ME699 Global Anglicanism

Systematic Theology (6 credits):

- ST645 God the Holy Spirit: Church Ministry and Sacraments
- ST770 Anglican Way of Theology

Pastoral Theology (3 credits):

- PT641 Prayer Book: An Introduction to Anglican Worship

If a student does not hold an MDiv, an additional 15 credits are required, as determined by the Academic Dean:*
