TRINITY SCHOLARSHIP

What is it?

A Trinity Scholarship is funding that does not have to be repaid. The scholarship is applied toward tuition costs only. All applicable fees must be paid for by the student.

Applicants must:

- be matriculated students accepted into a Master’s degree program.
- be registered for at least twelve (12) residential credit hours each term (Fall 2019 and Spring 2020). Residential classes are those that consist of regularly scheduled, on-campus classroom sessions. Distance learning consists of interaction between the student and the instructor (who is physically separated from the student) through the use of communications technology. Distance learning credits will not be eligible for scholarship funding.
- demonstrate financial need
- be active members of a church

Once awarded, recipients must:

- attend all Wednesday chapel services
- fulfill community service obligations
- attend all Leadership Formation Group meetings
- attend all Dean’s Hours and Mission Conference
- remain in good academic standing as defined in the Academic Catalog Failure to adhere to the above could result in the revocation of an award.

How are awards determined?

A scholarship award is based on a student’s financial need. Need is determined from information submitted on the student’s FAFSA and the scholarship application. A scholarship award is granted for the 2019-2020 academic year. Students must re-apply for subsequent academic years.

What is the award range?

The maximum scholarship is the full cost of tuition; 75% tuition scholarships, 50% tuition scholarships and 25% tuition scholarships are also available. Scholarship funding will not be provided to any student beyond the minimum number of credits required for graduation from his/her degree program.

How do I apply?

2) Submit a completed 2019-2020 Trinity Scholarship application

Incomplete applications will not be processed.

When is the deadline to apply?

May 30, 2019. The Director of Student Services will begin to accept applications March 1. Only complete applications will be evaluated in the order in which they are received until funds have been exhausted. Early application is encouraged.
2019-2020 TRINITY SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The information you provide on this application will be used to determine your demonstrated financial need in accordance with Trinity’s financial aid policy. In order to qualify, students must demonstrate need and apply each year in a timely manner. Applicants must be full-time matriculated students working toward a Master’s degree. Awards will be made to qualified applicants as determined by the Trinity Scholarship Committee.
