SHORT SYLLABUS
The Lutheran Confessions
ST550
Spring 2020

Tuesdays, 1:30-4:15
Instructor: David S. Yeago
dyeago@tsm.edu
(803) 348-5046

DESCRIPTION
A close study of the confessional writings of the Lutheran Church as gathered in the Book of Concord. The course will focus on the role of the Confessions as public doctrine of the Lutheran Church. The major theological topics in the Confessions will be studied in relation to the wider Christian tradition with an eye to their ecumenical and pastoral implications. Prerequisite: ST540.

PROCEDURE AND REQUIREMENTS
The course will be taught in lecture format with interruptions and discussion encouraged. Each student will write two brief reflection papers (1000-1500 words) and a longer final paper (3000+ words)

REQUIRED TEXTS (Additional readings and handouts will be posted on Google Classroom)

